The Connect US Plan: Planners from Metro will show us the unique Connect US ped/bike plan for the five historic neighborhoods surrounding Union Station north of downtown Los Angeles

Long Beach: If you want to travel farther afield, you can visit Long Beach, a dynamic city on the coast just south of LA, and see the advanced bike infrastructure in its downtown.

Exposition Light Rail Line/Goldline Foothill Extension: Don't miss a tour of the recently opened Exposition Line from downtown LA to the beach in Santa Monica, or the Goldline Foothill Extension taking in charming foothill communities.

Culver City: An opportunity to tour great TOD projects, in a cool small City along the Expo Line.

LAST CHANCE to See and Be Seen

There's still a chance to join your colleagues and

If transit isn't your thing, think the Olympics: tour the historic LA Coliseum and hear about past glory and the bid for the 2024 Olympics. Or how about a tour of downtown Glendale, a community just west of Pasadena, with a successful downtown, and an infill residential real estate market that's on fire. Finally, who could resist a Bike Tour of the LA River, or a chance to eat and drink their way through the San Gabriel Valley, home of a rich food culture driven by vibrant immigrant communities?

And don't forget the Arroyos and Foothills Orientation Tour, a first for an APA State conference, focusing on the past, present, and future of Pasadena and its neighboring communities.
